33RD NTXCLC REGIONAL MEET

Story by Rubye Hubbard Musser, Photos by Bill Haesslein

The 33rd Regional was held at the Classic Gas Motor, Sherry and Cris Lofgren owners, Arlington TX, Sunday October 8, and it was an Outstanding Regional for North Texas Region Cadillac & LaSalle Club. Seventeen splendid cars were on display for all 35 members and guests to feast their eyes and desires on.

I was thrilled and very excited to see a 1959 black convertible follow me in the gate under the leadership of a never-before-at-a-meet new member Terry McKenzie, all the way from Longview, TX. Then not quite through drooling, a gorgeous dark maroon 1941 Cad Convertible drove in, having just restored and never shown before at our meets, by Gary Pennington of Weatherford. Following these beauties came the little maroon LaSalle Opera Coupe driven by Jeff Podmers, and then John McDaniel's 1966 Deville Convertible black beauty.

The general meeting held during the lunch held nominations for officers, however only one nomination was brought to group. John Foust was nominated for President. The rest of the offices will have to be filled in your choice on your ballot in the next newsletter and sent to Cecil and Jo Thompson.

We Thank Bill Kaufman for designing the Dash Plaques or plates and Best of Show award. John Foust designed and donated his awards with wood base and Goddess for first place, Peoples choice and Best of Choice. Thanks so much for all your artistic handy work Bill K Kaufman and John Foust.

We had several guests. Barry McKeown, a neighbor of Rubye's and a professor at UTA where Karen Phillips knew him. Larry Kolodziejcki, new member at Peach Drive, brought his son-in-law, Ben Ford and grandson.

The very delicious BBQ catered by Kim Labriardo was enjoyed very much by all members. Meeting adjourned and all traveled home safely. It was delightful and fun filled afternoon browsing among our NTX spectacular some never seen cars and lots of different cars stored in several Quonset buildings of the owners, the Lofgrens.

Thank You So Very Much NTXCLC MEMBERS

Love you

Hope all enjoyed the 33rd Regional of 2017

Happy Motoring
